

Vane Kosturanov

Born in 1979 in Strumica, Macedonia. The world opened to him through images and sounds even before he could talk. He sketched his first letter without being aware it was part of the alphabet. He continued to paint and opened to the world even before his first exhibition. Since 1998 he has completely dedicated himself to painting and put on several individual and group exhibitions. Now he also works as a graphic designer in his e-studio.
